- ① Höre der Geschichte zu. Welchen Buchstaben hörst du besonders oft?

Kemal war eine knallrote Krabbe, die an einem Kiesstrand hinter einem Kaktus in Kenia wohnte. In Kenia war es nie kühl, sondern immer knallig heiß und zu knabbern gab es auch genug. Da Kemal aber kleinlich war, konsumierte er seine Knabbereien immer klammheimlich alleine. Teilen konnte er nicht ausstehen. Erst gestern köderte er sich einen köstlichen Keks und vorgestern einen kräftigen Knochen. Als die anderen kleinen Tiere zum Teilen kamen, kroch Kemal kopfüber in eine leere Kokosnuss und konsumierte den Keks und den Knochen schnell komplett alleine.

Doch komischerweise fühlte sich Kemal seit kurzem komisch und kränklich. Er knirschte mit seinen Scheren und knobelte. Da kreuzte sich sein Weg mit einem Käfer.

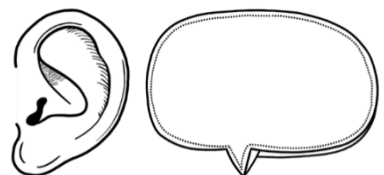

„Du, Käfer. Weißt du wieso mir so komisch ist?, keuchte die kleine Krabbe kraftlos. Aber der Käfer kroch nur kommentarlos weiter und beachtete Kemal nicht.

Kemal kroch weiter den Kiesstrand entlang. Da kam ihm ein Kamel entgegen. „Du, Kamel. Weißt du wieso mir so komisch ist?, knurrte Kemal. Aber auch das Kamel kroch nur kommentarlos weiter.

Kemal kauerte sich auf einen Kalkstein. Da kam ein Kakadu angeflogen. „Wieso bist du denn so kreidebleich? Möchtest du etwas von meinem köstlichen Käse abhaben?“ Kemal fand es kurios, dass jemand seine kostbaren Knabbereien teilte. Aber kaum nahm er den Käse an, fühlte er sich kurzerhand komfortabel und wieder kraftvoll. Da kam ihm eine wundervolle Idee.

Kemal kletterte auf eine Kokosnusspalme und schnitt eine Kokosnuss klein. Dann kroch er den Kiesstrand entlang und gab jedem Kleintier etwas ab. Selbst das Küken, das sonst nur Körner frisst, bekam etwas ab. Er fühlte sich klasse. Kemal beschloss fortan weniger knauserig zu sein und seine Köstlichkeiten künftig zu teilen. Denn Teilen macht glücklich.
